

While not opposed to data transfer and/or text messaging. Allowing passengers to make and recieve calls in-flight would benifit only a few and would disturb the majority of passengers. As a flight Attendant for over 25 years I am opposed to allowing cell phone use in-flight for anything but an emergency. Thank you.